

SCIM-C GO

Document:

Summary (Facts only) What type of historical document is the source? What specific information, details and/or perspectives does the source provide? What is the subject and/or purpose of the source? Who was the author and/or audience of the source? What does it tell us?	Context When and where was the source produced? Why was the source produced? What was happening within the immediate and broader context at the time the source was produced? What information can place the source in time and place? Where, when, why, and by whom was it produced?
Infer What is suggested by the source? What interpretations may be drawn from the source? What perspectives or points of view are indicated in the source? What inferences may be drawn from absences or omissions in the source? What can we read “between the lines”?	Monitor What additional evidence beyond the source is necessary to answer the historical question? What ideas, images, or terms need further defining from the source? How useful or significant is the source for its intended purpose in answering the historical question? What questions need to be revisited for it to make sense? What bias is there, and what info is missing?

SCIM-C GO

Corroborate

What similarities and differences between the sources exist?

What factors could account for these similarities and differences?

What conclusions can be drawn from the accumulated interpretations?

What additional information or sources are necessary to answer more fully the guiding historical question?

After analyzing all of the documents, what seems to have happened? What is the “truth”?